VERTICAL AND HORIZONTAL AIR-LAUNCH SOLUTIONS FOR THE SMALL SAT MARKETS

Low Earth Orbit (LEO) Focus

Moderated by: Oscar S. Garcia, MBA
Interflight Global Corporation
Chairman and CEO

NASS 2020, Traverse City Michigan
LAUNCHING THE LEO SPACE ECONOMY
The launch industry—growing

The Commercial Space Economy:

- 2018: ~$360 Billion
- 2035-2040: ~$1 Trillion

Source: Satellites Industry Association
Panelists:

- Miguel Ayala, CEO Exodus Aerospace
- Brian Gulliver, Aerospace Practice Leader, Kimley-Horn
- Monica Jan, Sr. Director Strategy and Customer Experience, Virgin Orbit
- Jess Sponable, Consultant Icefox Technologies, LLC

The growth needed for the global space economy to reach $1 trillion by the 2040s requires an "inflection point" for the exponential growth of the small sat launch industry.
The growth needed for the global space economy to reach $1 trillion by the 2040s requires an "inflection point" for the exponential growth of the small sat launch industry.
The growth needed for the global space economy to reach $1 trillion by the 2040s requires an "inflection point" for the exponential growth of the small sat launch industry.
The growth needed for the global space economy to reach $1 trillion by the 2040s requires an "inflection point" for the exponential growth of the small sat launch industry.
The growth needed for the global space economy to reach $1 trillion by the 2040s requires an "inflection point" for the exponential growth of the small sat launch industry.